NEWSLETTER

April is here! Warmer weather and summer are on the horizon. It's the perfect time to stay focused as we gear up for finals and summer break. We can do it!

POETRY MONTH

"Poetry is when an emotion has found its thought and the thought has found words."

ROBERT FROST

April is National Poetry Month, 30 days of celebrating the joy, expressiveness, and pure delight of poetry.

Here are a selection of poems and authors you might enjoy. Whether you're looking to explore something new, seeking out fresh adventures, or just want to dive into timeless classics, there's something here for everyone:

Introduction to Poetry by Billy Collins

Poem About Your Laugh by Susan Glickman

A Boat by Richard Brautigan

The Road Ahead by George Joseph Moriarty

Trees by Mark Haddon

Sonnet 18 by William Shakespeare

The Road Not Taken by Robert Frost

TWISTED DISNEY TALES SERIES

If you're a Disney fan, you'll love our collection of Twisted Disney Tales! This series gives classic Disney stories a fun twist by exploring alternate endings and "what if" scenarios, offering fresh takes on the fairy tales you already know and love.

BOOK CLUB

Please don't forget our next Book Club Meeting on Monday, April 14th, after school in the library. We will be discussing the book: THE INHERITANCE GAME by Jennifer Lynn Barnes.

We hope to see you there!
It will be our last meeting of the year. Students interested in Book Club for next year should join our Schoology Page and look out for announcements in the fall.
