HELLO MARCH!

This month is packed with exciting events and important celebrations, from St. Patrick's Day to International Women's Day. It's also a month to reflect on our goals and make the most of the opportunities ahead. Whether it's tackling new challenges in the classroom, enjoying time outdoors, or celebrating the achievements of others,

March is sure to be a month full of memorable moments.

Let's make this month as productive and fun as possible, and remember—Spring Break is just around the corner!

Author Day Recap

Our recent Author Day was a huge success! Students had the incredible opportunity to meet local authors and hear about their creative process. It was an inspiring day filled with engaging discussions and the chance to dive deeper into the world of storytelling. We are grateful to all the authors who joined us and made the event so memorable. A big thank you to everyone who attended!

APRIL 14 - LAST CLUB MEETING

Book Club Meeting

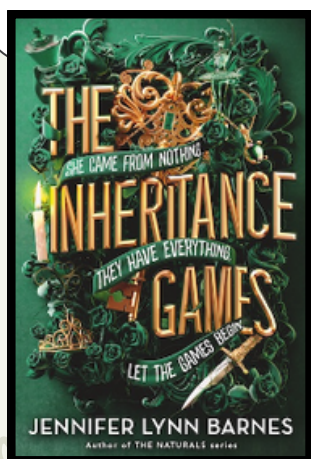

Thanks to those who came and enjoyed our book club meeting on Monday, March 10th! Please don't forget our next Book Club Meeting on Monday, April 14th, after school in the library to discuss the book: "THE INHERITANCE GAME" by Jennifer Lynn Barnes.

Hope to see you there!

It will be our last meeting of the year. Students interested in Book Club for next year should join our Schoology Page and look out for announcements in the fall.
