The Saxon Store at SHS will be in a new location and the hours are still to be determined. We will announce the reopening of the Saxon Store when the opening date is determined.

Septemberfest Food Booth

At the Septemberfest Not-for-Profit Day food booth on Labor Day, SHS VIP sold Italian Beef sandwiches from Firehouse Dogs and chips along with soda, water and Gatorade. We had a huge crush of people after the parade and into the early afternoon hours. We sold out of beef sandwiches at 5:30 pm and continued selling chips and drinks until close at 9 pm. All in all, we had a good day with lots of new parent involvement, help from students and support from parents who continue to help even after their own children have graduated. And, we raised money to support the giving that the VIP will do in the year to come.

Thank you to all who helped at the booth, who gave advice and who provided Instant Pots that were so critical to keeping up to the demands of making hot beef sandwiches in the busiest times and throughout the day! The booth was staffed by Amy Ciminello, Frank & Tiffany Kolasa and daughter Grace, Jhina Tabulina O'Brien and daughter Emmalina, Melikia Courtney, Audrey Flechsig, Jean Bajko, Kirti Parmer, Robi Vollkommer, Josh & Kristen McChristian, Wanda Pedraza and Mike & Melissa Sanchez and sons Michael and Ethan, Yoshi Akimoto, Cassie Flowers, and Stacie Campbell. Thank you to Lynette Flight and Misa Nettum for support. We sold 350 raffle tickets to recover the cost of having a booth at Septemberfest, and we thank the following for taking a pack of 10 or more tickets: Cassie Flowers, Robi Volkommer, Jhina Tabulina O'Brien, Frank Kolasa, Brandy Wilson, Mahesh & Priya Pathak, Irma Contreras, Nelly Garcia, Laura Dorojan, Sarah Mawhorrr, and Audrey Flechsig.

Our vendor, Firehouse Dogs (1820 W Irving Park Rd, Schaumburg), is better known for their Chicago-style hot dog and has Italian Beef sandwiches with peppers. Please thank them for their support of SHS VIP! --Chair, Linda Gudex

KYC Prevention Services

The Positive Youth Development Program (PYDP) promotes healthy choices for youth ages 10–17 through education, awareness of health issues, policy change, community collaboration, and evidence-based programs that support substance abuse prevention.

The D211 Youth Advisory Council (YAC) is compiled of high school students who attend schools in District 211 and are interested in creating opportunities for positive youth development in their community. YAC meetings take place twice a month and are planned and led by youth with the support of the Community Collaboration and Public Resource Development staff from the Kenneth Young Center.

The D211 YAC participates in the decisions and activities of the Communities for Positive Youth Development (CPYD) Coalition, while also planning community engagement activities throughout the school year (August-May) and activities for SAMHSA's National Prevention Week. The goal of the YAC is to ensure a diverse youth perspective and engagement in the community, while also earning Harper Promise and community service hours for school.

YAC meetings take place on the first and third Wednesdays of each month from 6:30-8:00 PM at the KYC office at 650 E. Algonquin Rd Suite 104, Schaumburg. To join, or for more information, please contact us at cpyd.yac@gmail.com.
