Fall Arts and Craft Fair 2020

Melikia Courtney

Will be here before you know it!

Hi All!

Getting an Early Start will be our best practice for a successful Craft Fair Event on September 19th.

With that in mind I have a brief checklist to help you along.

1. Start Now! What do you plan to sell at the Craft Fair this year?

Are you being creative, ensuring that what you bring to the table stands out? Are you approaching your success in a very defined way?

2. Knowing that many customers will come without cash in hand, ePay options should be among the ways you are prepared to serve your new customers. Have you established multiple pay options? Do you have a strong electronic signal with your ePay system normally? If not, again figuring things out now, will save you tension and sale loss later.

3. Lastly for now, Understand that Halloween will be the next holiday, Christmas not too far behind that. Also Diwali. With those in mind, if possible, include items that cater to the holiday shoppers.

Being active in your planning now will help you have a wonderful outcome during your time engaging our community at the 2020 Schaumburg VIP Booster Club Sponsored Craft Fair.

P.S. How is your media presence?

Feel free to reach out to me for ideas on how to share your wares on various media and all things Craft Fair.

To Your Success,

Melikia Courtney, Craft Fair Chair 2020
