May

Congratulations Seniors!

Can you believe the end of the year has come so soon? It seems like only yesterday we were celebrating homecoming and Halloween! Now, Spring has sprung (despite what the weather might say) and the school year is at an end. Our Class of 2023 is heading out to new places and adventures. Congratulations to our seniors! We wish you well! May you follow your dreams, find your hearts, and always, always, return your library books!

Return! Return! Return!

As the end of the year draws near, it is important to remember what we have been given, and also what is due: like our library books. All library books are due back by May 12th. Library books not returned by the end of the year will be added to student obligations and fees.

Please return your books as soon as possible so this does not happen. Thanks!

Thank you to everyone who participated in Book Club this year! We had a wonderful time reading, discussing, and sometimes arguing about the books. Overall, we learned and grew and had a lot of fun (and popcorn). I hope to see you all next year!
