Summer School Regulations

Frequently Asked Questions

Summer School is an academic enrichment program for students who desire additional learning opportunities. Time is precious; each day is equivalent to a week of study during the regular school year. Rules are enforced strictly, quickly, and consistently to maintain an atmosphere conducive to learning. There will be no exceptions made to the rules of conduct or attendance.

What kind of behavior is expected?

During the summer, behavior expectations are the same as during the school year. Students may not wear hats and coats in school. Students who use or possess tobacco or controlled substances; are truant or excessively tardy; or commit acts of gross misconduct will be immediately dismissed from summer school. These students will forfeit credit and fees for the semester.

Are students required to wear I.D.s?

Students are required to wear and properly display a current school I.D. card while attending Summer School in District 211. Student I.D. cards will be distributed on the first day of class. The I.D. card must be worn around the neck and visible at all times during the school day except when specifically exempted on a temporary basis by an authorized faculty /staff member. Only lanyards issued by the school may be used to wear and display the I.D. card. Students may not embellish their I.D. card with any drawing or writing. I.D. cards must be surrendered upon request of any staff member, including bus drivers and student supervisors. The I.D. card must be shown to the staff member on duty when entering buses, checking out media materials, and leaving the school for any purpose. Students without an I.D. card on a school-issued lanyard must obtain a replacement card or lanyard immediately upon entering the building. A fee of $3.00 may be charged to replace a lost or invalid I.D. card or school lanyard, and a fee of $1.00 may be charged for each day that a student fails to wear the I.D. card to school. Further disciplinary consequences may apply for failure to properly wear and display a current I.D. card.

Are electronic devices allowed?

Students are permitted to possess electronic communication devices (e.g. cellular telephones, pagers, personal digital assistants, or any hybrid communication device) while on school property. "School property" includes the school building, parking lots and grounds, and school-owned vehicles. However, these devices must be turned off and stored out of sight (backpack, purse, not visible to anyone) during school hours.

What are the attendance rules?

- A student who misses the first two days of a Summer School semester will not be allowed to attend class that semester.
- A student who misses the first two days of a Summer School semester will forfeit all tuition and fees.
- Upon obtaining a third absence (or any combination of absences/tardies equaling three absences), a student will be dropped from Summer School.
- A tardy of one hour or less is recorded as one-half day of absence; more than one hour equals a full day. Students arriving late or leaving early must report to the attendance office.

- Do not schedule summer vacations during the Summer School session.
- Students dropped from class do not receive refunds.
- To report an absence or ask a question, please call the summer school office at the school the student is attending.

A student who is absent on the last day of the semester will not be allowed to take the final examination and will not receive course credit. In addition, the student will forfeit all fees for the entire semester and receive a failing grade by default. Final examinations will be given during the last two hours of class. Final examinations will not be given early.

How much credit does a course earn?

Students receive one-half unit of credit for each semester of an academic course. Driver education courses and physical education earn one-quarter unit of credit for the course.

Students may apply to audit a course. A notation will appear on the school record that the student attended the course and received no credit. Audit students pay full fee and must adhere to the same attendance guidelines. Audit forms are obtained from the summer school principal.
